EISSTOCK

Activity sheet · Playful

Looking for a different and cosy winter activity that can be done almost anywhere?

Then we warmly recommend Eisstock. It has very old roots in the Alpine countries of central Europe, where it is called Eisstock. Ice curling is very similar to ordinary curling, but the rules are a bit more like boules. You use a number of stones (stocks) that should end up as close to the jack as possible.

The activity is mainly done on frozen lakes or artificial ice. Teams of 4–5 people face each other in a tournament, and when it is over we have a winning team! We bring fire baskets to create warmth and atmosphere, and of course we can arrange hot drinks or similar during the activity. A great time guaranteed!
