Stratus 72 is an event tipi for almost any kind of event, summer or winter. Stable, easy to handle and spacious – it has been used at the Nordic World Ski Championships and Melodifestivalen, among others.

Ideal for weddings, product launches, entertainment, garden parties and intimate evening receptions. Several tipis can be joined for larger company parties, conferences, exhibitions and concerts. The canvas can be raised into a brim that gives shade, airflow and a view into the tent.
